

MVSEO DE HISTORIA DE LA FARMACIA

“Especialidades Farmacéuticas -Industrial drugs”

For centuries, the apothecary was a skilled craftsman who specializes in trade, manufacture and sale of drugs. Its activity revolved around the development of formulations.

In the nineteenth century the picture begins to change because of the scientific, social and economic factors that are taking place in the pharmaceutical field. So, the industrialization process of the drug in industrial plants is starting

