

GUIDELINES FOR REFEREES

1. Reports should be sent within 30 days of the receipt of the paper. Please contact Revista de Estudios Norteamericanos as soon as possible if you are unable to meet the deadline or to review the paper, so that the editorial process is not delayed.
2. Referees will receive the paper, together with the assessment form, as an email attachment.
3. The completed assessment form should be returned as an email attachment to ren@us.es. A detailed written report, also sent as an attachment, is desirable, and mandatory in the case of rejected articles or articles that should be modified for publication. Please be specific in the reasons for your assessment, avoid irony or sarcasm, and be constructive; remember that a copy of these reports will be forwarded to the authors.
4. The essays submitted may be annotated, either on paper or in electronic format; these will also be forwarded to the authors.
5. If the two referees differ in their assessment, a third expert will be called in. The paper will be published only if after due modifications a significant degree of agreement is reached.
6. Please remember that your work is the guarantee of the editorial efficiency and high academic standards of Revista de Estudios Norteamericanos.
